The first auction of the year

Riding horses of the January Auction Online have arrived in Verden

Verden. The new year has hardly dawned and the hurly burly at the facilities of the Niedersachsenhalle has started again. The 80 horses of the Verden Auction Online in January have moved into their boxes. This marks the beginning of the auction time in Verden for the 55 selected dressage horses and 25 show jumpers. The horses can now be tried out during training hours. From Sunday, January 15, the first bids can be placed online. The final bidding will start on Saturday, January 21, at 2 pm CET.

The dressage and show jumping horses have already started their training. A carefully selected collection is presented, which offers something for every buyer. The riding horses are led by the For Cruise/Destano son Feivel (breeder and exhibitor: ZG Fiedler, Bahrenborstel). This eye-catching dressage horse has already placed in tests for young riding horses. Lot number three is the first jumper of the January collection. Peak Performance by Plot Blue/Stolzenberg (breeder: Hedda Brandt-Haydn, Bendestorf; exhibitor: Schulze-Averdiek Sportpferde und Aufzucht GbR, Rosendahl) is a striking show jumper with a clear sporting perspective.

On Saturday, January 14, buyers can get an impression for themselves in the Niedersachsenhalle from 10 am. The opening presentation will also be broadcast live on verden-auktion-online.com. On Wednesday, January 18, the next presentation with live stream will take place from 2 p.m. onwards, before selected auction horses will show themselves once again in free jumping on Friday, January 20, from 10 a.m. onwards.
