Lucky Number Seven

Verden auction in April

Verden. At the Verden Auction Online in April, Salt Lake City achieved the top price of 82,000 Euros. On average, the 54 young talents were worth 20,740 Euros to their new owners.

With already summery temperatures, the collection of the Verden Auction Online entered the hot phase: the bid-up. An international bidding duel flared up for number 7, the Secret/Sandro Hit son Salt Lake City, from whose dam line a top price was also achieved at the last Elite Auction "Sound of Music". Salt Lake City (breeder: Leon Karsten, Neustadt) thus returned to the Verden auction site, where he changed hands to Johann von der Decken at the 2021 Elite Auction. Mexico prevailed among the international bidders, who also secured the Benicio/Le Primeur son Brilliant (breeder: Hermann Jürgen Rump, Gilten).

Desfaction by Diaron/Satisfaction I (breeder: Ingrid Wollner, Schöneck) had already emerged as one of the favorites in the jumping lot. The grey gelding was touted as a prime example of attitude, caution, energy and ability, and was worth 42,000 euros to a tournament stable in southern Germany.

Eleven of the top talents brought their exhibitors 25,000 euros and more. Just under half of the auction lot will advertise Hanoverians abroad. Five times customers from Finland placed the last bid, three times both buyers from Spain and France won the bidding duels.

Hannoveraner Rhythmus

Those interested in young talents from the current foal crop will have the chance to secure their future hope among a selection of 24 dressage and nine future show jumpers next Thursday.
